

Intensive English tutoring to pass IELTS tests

International students are required to take a second IELTS test to gain a visa extension if they wish to start their careers in Australia. Also many professions require a higher standard of English (7.0 and above) to gain the visa extension.

g'day [sa] offers one-on-one intensive English language tutoring in all or any particular aspects of the IELTS test. g'day[sa] is especially aware of the short timeline many students face to pass the test before their visas expire and can provide a very rapid improvement in English proficiency if required. To date we have had 100% student success rate in passing the required IELTS.

All tutors are qualified to teach English as a second language. The tutoring is offered at a venue and time mutually agreed between the student and the tutor.

COST: Up to $300 depending on the work required.
